

FROM THE HEART OF THE GLOBAL CHURCH

Kingdom Without Borders

The Untold Story of Global Christianity

Miriam Adeney

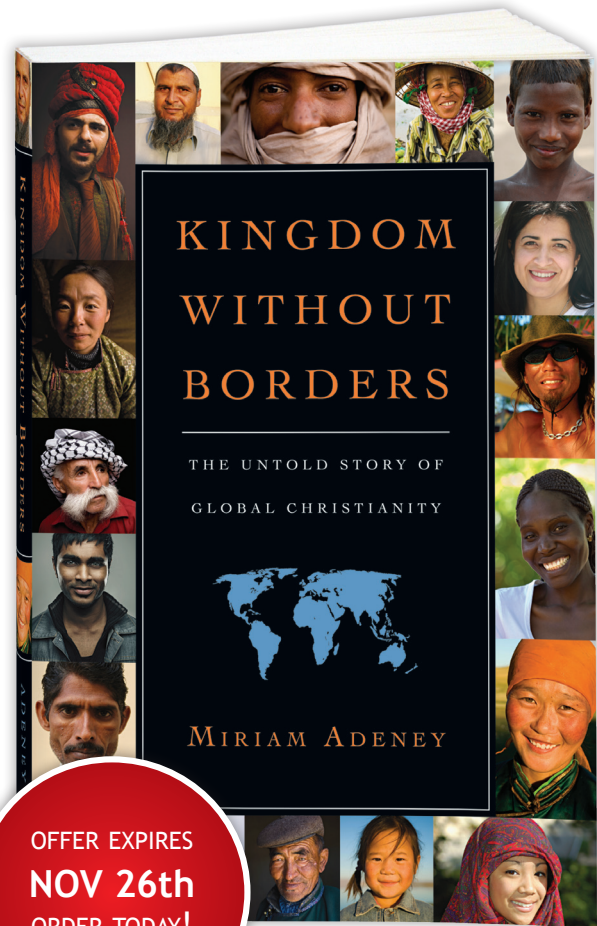

As the influence of Christianity grows exponentially in the Global South, news brokers of the West continue looking the other way. But Miriam Adeney has ministered with Christians in the far reaches of the globe and has seen firsthand something that demands our attention: the unmistakable influence of the Spirit.

Weaving together global complexities and theological truths, the true stories presented here give us a portrait of God at work in every part of the world. Local Christians in the Philippines, China, Latin America, the Muslim world, India, Africa and the Buddhist world are facing massive challenges. We need to partner with them. There are no quick fixes, but through listening, learning and genuine collaboration the global church can and will flourish.

Through personal and corporate stories from this broad-sweeping Christian revival, Kingdom Without Borders continues the tradition of Hebrews 11—the saga of people who lived by faith through the ages.

Miriam Adeney is a consulting anthropologist and missiologist working in Asia, Africa and Latin America, and speaks on campuses and at conferences throughout North America. She is on the faculty of Seattle Pacific University and is a teaching fellow at Regent College. Her books include God's Foreign Policy: Practical Ways to Help the World's Poor; Daughters of Islam: Building Bridges with Muslim Women and A Time for Risking: Priorities for Women. She is married and the mother of three sons.

Endnotes

"Like no other account I've read, Miriam Adeney compellingly . . . paints a masterpiece of God at work across our planet."

—SCOTT MOREAU, PROFESSOR OF INTERCULTURAL STUDIES AT WHEATON COLLEGE AND EDITOR OF EVANGELICAL MISSIONS QUARTERLY

"Kingdom Without Borders invites us into a magnificent tapestry of the glory of God alive in the peoples and nations of our world. Miriam Adeney weaves the dominant designs of God's global mission with and through countless stories of people and friends. We meet sisters and brothers in Christ in contexts of joy and profound sadness; in China, Latin America, the Islamic and the Buddhist worlds; in the arts and persecution; in the Word and the Spirit. I cannot recommend any book more highly than Kingdom Without Borders with its key themes of our God on mission, and the stories of real people around the world."

—WILLIAM TAYLOR, GLOBAL AMBASSADOR, WORLD EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE; SENIOR MENTOR, WEA MISSION COMMISSION
