

Evangelical Fellowship of Cambodia

Relief and Disaster Management Commission

Love Gift Distribution

Prasat Sampo and Sandan Districts, Kampong Thom Province

October 24, 2009

Commission's staff help bring water filter and bean sauce

Encouraged words by Rev. Heng Cheng and District Chief officer

Pas. Rath Ung, on behalf of victims and local church leaders in Prasat Sampo district, gave thanks to donors and humanitarians

185 affected families selected from 17 villages in Prasat Sampo received relief packages

A woman with her lovely baby received relief package

Picked up at breaking point road of 15 most affected families who they spent more than 3 hours by walking about 15 kilometers because of flooding and road damaged, and then brought them back.

Church in Sandan district during and after flooding

Rev. Ith Timothy gave encouraged words to affected families in Sandan.

92 affected families from 8 villages in Sandan received love gifts

Phum Khmer Primary School in Sandan

18 poor families from two villages in Sandan received relief packages

Christian family who their home damaged by Ketsana received double relief packages, and also their transportation fee was paid.

Church a place where giving hope and blessing to all kind of men

Thanks for your praying and contributing

*" What I spent, is gone
What I kept, is lost but what I gave to charity will be mine forever "*

Reported by: Ma Ravuth (EFC RDMC Coordinator)

