Dear friends,

All of the books presented in this list are also available for sale at various booksellers. For this reason we ask that if you can afford to buy these books, please purchase them for yourself. We would be pleased to forward your order to a bookseller so that you can receive price information by email. The books can be ordered at www.international.genialebuecher.de. Many of our books are also now listed at www.amazon.com.

Our offer of free books is intended primarily for people outside the Western world who may not be able to buy such books. This includes pastors, missionaries, Bible school students, and for some books, entire congregations.

We try to distinguish between our smaller and more easily understood books, which most Christians can understand, and which we want to provide in larger numbers, and our larger books, which require a good knowledge of English along with some theological knowledge. The larger books are mostly intended for leaders and libraries.

If you want to order free books, please write something about yourself, your church, your work, or your concerns, so that we can see whether you qualify for our offer of free books.

John Warwick Montgomery's Legal Apologetic
